Personal Statement and Statement of Research Interest

The personal statement, not to exceed 750 words in English, should include a self-introduction and well-articulated explanation of how the candidate would make the most of the Yenching Academy program experience, as well as how it would benefit the candidate's career. The Statement of Research Interest (maximum 1500 words, excluding citations) should include key research question(s), background to study and/or summary of literature, and study design that could reflect your academic training. Please note that you are not committed to making this proposed project your Master's thesis topic. The Admissions Committee wants to judge how you formulate and write about academic topics.

Nominees' online application packages should include the following documents, in English: Personal statement (750 words or less); Statement of Research Interest (maximum 1500 words, excluding citations); Curriculum Vitae; official transcript(s); diploma(s) and/or certificate of enrollment; English proficiency score report. Two academic letters of recommendation should be provided by the Partner University to Yenching Academy via email.
